and Lord's Prayer

Anthem

Reading I Genesis 28:10–19a
(Jacob's dream of the ladder)

1. By gracious powers wonderfully sheltered,
and confidently waiting what may come,
we know that God is with us night and morning,
and never fails to greet us each new day.

*By loving forces silently surrounded,
I feel secure and filled with Your grace.
So I would like to live these days together,
and go with you into another year.*

2. Yet is this heart by its old foe tormented,
still evil days bring burdens hard to bear;
Oh, give our frightened souls the sure salvation
for which, O Lord, You taught us to prepare.
3. And when this cup You give is filled to brimming with bitter suffering, hard to understand,

Hymn R&S 555 We are Marching in the Light of God –

Blessing (sung Amen)

we take it fully and without a trembling,
out of so good and so beloved hand.

4. And one day you will take us from this world,
to let us hear a new and lovely sound
of greater things that we cannot imagine,
with all your people singing heart to heart.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer, evangelical theologian, member of the anti-nazi resistance movement.

Written shortly before the turn of the year 1944/45.

Bonhoeffer was killed by the Nazis on April 9, 1945.
